

Ubcomsa community website landing page

UBCOMSA department of computer science student association is a community for all current and former student of computer science department of the university of Buea.

As a non-profit organisation, UBCOMSA has for aim bring together current student as mentees, and former students as mentors in all the fields of computer science.

At UBCOMSA the main activity is bridging the gap between theory and practical in the field of computer science. At UBCOMSA you can fiend mentors in backend web development, frontend web development, Artificial intelligence, data science, software engineering, hardware development and much more.

At UBCOMSA, you can also get help with school work. UBCOMSA helps you archive better grades, a career path, and how to make your self hireable in the tech market.

UBCOMSA also organises annually events like hackathons, fieldtrips, tech-talk events, open day events and orientation days.

1 PROBLEM STATEMENT

Design and build a landing page that would serve as part of UBCOMSA's official website.

2 SCORING

As this is a design and coding exercise, we do not restrict you on any feature or component you should add to your design. Express your creativity and design skills with images, animations, coloring, icons etc.

Your design would be evaluated on

- Responsiveness
- Design and layout
- Look and feel of your page
- Relevant information (review the intro)
- Creativity
- Choice of color theme

3 Constrains

this exercise should be done strictly using code html,css and js or others. content management systems such as Wordpress or wix are not allowed

The info on your website should be strictly about UBCOMSA, university of Buea, faculty of science and CSC any you may refer to the intro above.

it is strictly forbidden to pull a template directly from the internet to present for the exercise or present a readymade project.

candidates who go against the aforementioned would be eliminated.

4 Assets

The only asset you would be provided with is the UBCOMSA logo. You could get other assets like icons or images from the online resources.

5 Miscellaneous

Your submission should comprise of a on a github repo of your project, it should be in production (hosted live) using github pages or any other free hosting provider of your choice.

HAPPY HACKING!!!

